Why does the character decide to emigrate from their country? Based on the year they travel and their reason to emigrate, how will the character arrive in the United States? What do we need to know about what is happening in their home country during this historic time period to understand the character’s motivations?

Country __________________________

In what year do they travel? ______________________________________________________

Character name ____________________________, Character age ______