Unsure of what to write in the "My Ideas" section of your notecard? Here are some ideas to get you thinking!

Interpret, Evaluate, Reflect on what you have learned:

- Include your thoughts and opinions about the example you are using in the notecard.
- Why did you pick that quote or piece of evidence?
- Provide any type of analysis you can make about the information.
- Is the information positive/negative?
- Explain how this piece of information helps to support your viewpoint.
- Make connections to other information (what you are learning in class, observations you made, stories you see in the news).

Source Evaluation:

- Is the source credible? Did you question its credibility?
- Did this source clarify any information?
- Did you look up any information after looking up this article? facts/words/definitions?
- Did this source made you look up another one? Or lead you to another aspect of your topic?
- Is it missing any information?
- Did it match what you already knew? Do you believe it?

Further Research needs:

- Make a list of questions you still have after reading your article
- Identify what you want to know more about
- Make a list of other research you need to do, include keywords or phrases you should look up and what sources you should check.
